ARAB 250 - Arabic for Arabic Speakers

(6 units)

Prerequisite: This course is designed for heritage speakers of Arabic who are able to function in informal settings.

This course will build upon the knowledge and skills speakers of Arabic bring to the classroom. It will provide language-use experiences that move students beyond the informal situations in which they normally operate. Please note: This course is designed for heritage speakers of Arabic. If students are non-heritage speakers of Arabic who already completed four semesters of Arabic, they are urged to consult with the chair, the language coordinator or the instructor.

Both grading options.
